

$1 and Board
A Boomerang Boycott
B. C. Forbes' Line
Bankruptcy for Cities

By Arthur Brisbane

MIAMI, Fla., March 31—Without a roll call, the House of Representatives passed a bill authorizing President Roosevelt to send 200,000 men here to work in national forests for $1 a day and board. It isn't much, and as Mr. Green, of the Federation of Labor, said, it may establish a bad precedent in low wages. But one dollar a day and board is better than nothing a day and no board. And good workmen used to be hired in this country for $100 a year.

Some congressmen tried to defeat President Roosevelt's bill, but decided that the time has not come for that yet.

Tomorrow the Hitler party proposes to start a nationwide boycott against Jews in Germany, calling the boycott "a reprisal for the atrocious campaign" alleged to have been made by Jews.

If carried out, without interference by the German government, the boycott will be harmful to German Jews in the beginning, infinitely more harmful to German business and prosperity in the end.

Action that would deprive Germany of the Jewish commercial and industrial ability that has done so much to build up German prosperity, will probably not last long. The Germans are intelligent.

B. C. Forbes, whose specialty is the disclosure of high finance, carries at the top of his letter paper this line:

"With all this getting, get understanding. The amount of 'understanding' that some financial disclosures are going to acquire in the next two or three years may amaze even Mr. Forbes. After 12,000,000 men have been sent for awhile, and 123,000,000 Americans have walked through the trough of the depression for a few years, with legislation in place of prosperity, they will be inclined to ask definite questions, and even take definite measures to impart definite 'understanding' of the people's mood."

A bill to be introduced by Congressman Wilcox of Miami will interest holders of municipal bonds. Mr. Wilcox's bill would allow cities overburdened with debt to go into bankruptcy as individuals do, settle with their creditors on a basis of their ability to pay, and have a clean bill of health, following the bankruptcy.

This will startle those taught to look on municipal bonds as the first mortgages on the city. They are nothing of the kind, because nobody would have power to sell a city to meet the mortgage, or would exercise the power if he had it.

Someone tied heavy pieces of iron to the railroad track ahead of a train on which Toussie Monroville, head of the Chinese delegation, was traveling to Boston. The train was wrapped in yellow and red bunting, called by the Chinese "Chinese colors."

They suspect Chinese, hostile to Japan, of trying to wreck the train. The Chinese are responsible.

The Chinese are intelligent and know that to wreck a train in this country, if it is to be sent to China, it might be worse for innocent Chinese here than for anyone in Japan. They know that any Chinese who feels that his country has been badly treated by Japan can express his resentment respectfully, most appropriately by going back to China to fight against the Japanese.

Mr. Wyatt, lawyer of the Federal Reserve Bank, has asked Congress has power to abolish state banks, and put all the banking under the national government. Apart from that, President Roosevelt has made you out of his own ability to do things, anyhow, and make Congress "name."

Andrew Jackson knew how to deal with financial institutions, also how to get the nation out of a pretty bad financial fuddle, following his attack on the big bank.

It is important, as Frederick H. Prince of Boston says, not to deprive small communities of services that only the little local bank can render.

Word of Mediation Here Spurs Drive for Boycott Tomorrow

Berlin, March 31.—The Nazi drive to boycott Jews gathered force today as officials of the party announced anti-Jewish mass meetings to be held throughout the nation tonight.

Reports from the United States that Chancellor Hitler's party might be persuaded to the last minute to refrain from launching its drastic economic war on the Jews seemed only to add fuel to the fire.

A new proclamation defined the action as the beginning of a war on the entire Jewish race of the world. A party declaration said it will be fought "until history is made."

Climaxing preparations for the boycott, scheduled to start "like lightning" tomorrow at 10 a. m., trucks roared through the streets of German cities bearing placards which read: "Boycott Jewish stores," "Do not buy from chain stores. Consult no Jewish doctors or lawyers."

Clues Sought at Coughlin Home

Assessment of Public Grows Over 'Favoritism' in Case

John A. Deery, former president of the closed Union Trust Company, may lose his soft job as a nursemaid to pigs at the only farm in Middleton. The cause of protest raised over what is alleged favoritism in allowing Deery to serve out his one year sentence on the farm threatened today to sweep him back to a cell in Essex County House of Correction in Salem.

Chief executives in connection with the tangled affairs of the closed Federal National Bank and its affiliates today were:

1—Assessment by Raymond H. Farnsworth, of Marblehead, one of the three Essex County commissioners, that Deery had not been sentenced to a cell in the Essex County House of Correction in Salem.

2—Statement by Assistant District Attorney Crafts that he would present evidence regarding activities of officers and directors of closed Union Trust Company, an affiliate of the Federal National Bank, to the Middlesex grand jury next Monday.

3—Investigation of possible criminal activities in connection with the affairs of the Federal National Bank under direction of Special Assistant Attorney General A. Wharton at an early date.

While Deery spent his first day at the farm, the county in Middleton, learning the duties of his "nursemaid" and planning to "get some day back," he said 100 per cent, all money deposited in the bank in which he was once head, resentment over its alleged favored treatment grew like a storm cloud.

STATE PROBE ASKED
Raymond H. Farnsworth, of Marblehead, said "there are two or three things about Deery's transfer to the farm that I want to find out about. I want to find out about it."

Atty. Gen. Warner has already been asked by Rep. Alfred W. Steadman to investigate Deery's transfer.

Indignation at the transfer, together with Deery's statement that he would not stay at the farm, continued on Page 4, Column 4

House Leaders Cold to Measure but Leaders Seek Action

Washington, March 21 (AP)—The Senate $500,000,000 relief bill, which embarks the federal government on a new policy of aiding the needy, was received coldly by House Democratic leaders today.

Nevertheless, prompt consideration was promised for the measure with indications that it will be approved substantially as it passed the Senate by a 20-17 vote yesterday.

ABANDON HOOPER PLAN

The bill abandons the Hoover policy of loaning money to States and cities for relief purposes and makes direct federal grants for this purpose.

Speaker Rainey and Rep. Byrnes of Tennessee, Democratic leaders, would prefer to loan money to states for relief work, but are supporting the bill.

The measure is to be sent to committee for a hearing next Monday, Byrnes said, with action depending upon that of the Ways and Means Committee.

BEFORE THE SENATE

Before the measure passed the Senate, the close followers of former President Hoover attacked the measure vigorously. Senator Foran (R.) of Ohio predicted the new policy would mean the end of relief through which federal funds would flow out endlessly.

The measure, sponsored by Senator Wagner (D.) of New York and La Follette (R.) of Wisconsin, is said to be satisfactory to the White House.

HUGE STATE AID

The $500,000,000 principle on which federal aid to states is given for highway and other purposes is involved in the new measure.

Two hundred million dollars can be expended by granting in state amounts equal to matching the amount expended by the state, in effecting all subdivisions in the state.

The other provision will be distributed whenever the administrator finds that the relief money which can be raised by the state in addition to a one-half federal grant, is not sufficient. A total of 100 per cent of the total is imposed upon state grants.

Washington, March 20 (AP)—A compulsory five-day week, six-hour day for industry was voted today by the Senate Judiciary committee, which reported to the Senate that it would put more than 6,000,000 persons to work and "aid in restoring hope and confidence throughout the land."

The bill, approved 11 to 3, was sponsored by Sen. Black (D., Ala.) and extensive hearings were held with many witnesses claiming it was unconstitutional.

TAKES TO THE AIR

His rise to eminence has been rapid. After his bishop here had admitted impotence in placing him in a curacy, Father Coughlin asked permission to build a tiny frame church, seating four hundred, in Royal Oak. Bishop Gallagher demurred; there were only 25 families near the prospective church site then. But Father Coughlin won the permission.

Always a radio fan, Father Coughlin thought the ether an ideal medium in which to bring the gospel into home. In 1927 he started his own famous weekly radio talks.

With this as his platform, Father Coughlin branched out. More stations came into his weekly network. In 1930 he expanded his topics. This son of an American-born Canadian priest was now on the air as a national figure.

MORTGAGE PLAN DELAYS FARM RELIEF ACT

Refinancing Plan to Be Added to Inflation Bill

Washington, March 21 (AP)—President Roosevelt's desire to aid distressed farmers in saving their mortgaged farmlands today delayed action on the administration's agricultural relief bill.

The measure, drafted to inflate farm prices by $1,000,000,000 a year, was held in the Senate agriculture committee pending a decision by administration leaders on farm mortgage relief.

When administration leaders agree on a plan a new bill will be introduced in the Senate, proposing the use of federal funds in refinancing farm mortgages.

DISAGREE ON INTEREST

The mortgage relief provisions were being drafted by Henry Morgenthau, Jr., chairman of the federal farm credit administration, and Senator Bankhead (D., Ala.), and other administration officials.

The senatorial delegation supported the Meadon plan for refinancing farm mortgages through the Federal Reserve system.

The rate of interest to be charged on the government funds in the farm bill, proposing the use of federal funds in refinancing farm mortgages.

PLANS $500,000,000 BANK

The Meadon plan, which the California senator sponsored as a bill several years ago, would set up a United States Mortgage Bank with capital of $500,000,000 to be paid by the treasury.

The President would be empowered to negotiate in the bank all other federal bureau or agencies dealing with agriculture.

The Meadon bank would be directed to refinance farm mortgages on terms over a period, not to exceed 50 years, with interest at 3 per cent and carrying charge of 1/2 per cent.

The mortgage would be paid in ten-year installments, 3 1/2 per cent interest.

Administration leaders hoped for a complete agreement on the refinancing features by last week, so that the farm bill can be reported to the Senate Monday.

Ruth Judd Hysterical as Board Rejects Clemency Plea

Phoenix, Ariz., March 21 (AP)—Winnifred Ruth Judd must ascend the gallows at 13 years old in the execution of a sensational trunk murder, who had made a long and determined fight for life.

Ruth Judd Given 7-Day Reprieve

Governor R. B. Mearns signed last night a proclamation granting Winnifred Ruth Judd a seven-day reprieve as she will not be hanged until Good Friday.

The new date is April 21 as recommended by the board of pardons and paroles when it denied her clemency.

clemency, learned in her prison cell at Florence that the Arizona State Board of Pardons and Paroles had denied her plea, but had decided that she need not go to her death on Good Friday for killing Mrs. Anna Lerei, slain with Miss Hedwig Remmer at 15 pounds.

For days the cold blonde who killed her two best friends, friendless, and her body was shipped from Phoenix to Los Angeles in two trunks and a case, has been hysterical. She has been screaming and screaming that death causes her to become hysterical.

The decision of the State board, announced last night, consists of nine pages of typewritten notes which the crowded case is fully reviewed.

One sensational new fact revealed in the decision of the board is that Dr. W. C. Judd, husband of the murderer, who Mrs. Lerei had privately testified that his wife's defense had been conducted by him, said she had been in the death-room mattresses upon which she had a mysterious death.

Disposition of these mattresses had never been before the board.

DOCTOR TELLS

The Judd added, "the report continued, 'that the matter of his wife's defense had been conducted by him, said she had been in the death-room mattresses upon which she had a mysterious death.'

With clemency having been denied the blonde "trunk" murderer, her attorneys have three more planned. The first is a motion before the trial judge to set aside the judgment on the grounds of jury prejudice, and fraud by her trial counsel in failing to enter a plea of self defense as ordered by the judge.

APPEAL DENIED

The second move is an appeal to the Arizona Supreme Court for a new trial on the grounds of new evidence and error in that court. The Arizona Supreme Court has denied the appeal.

The third move would be a request to the superintendent of the state prison to call a sanity hearing before a jury in the Pinal County court.

PROBES INCOME TAX OF JURIST

Income tax returns filed by Judge Arthur P. Stone for 1930 and 1931 may be brought in as evidence today when hearing by the legislative committee on the judiciary on the petition that he be removed from the bench resumes.

Request that the return be produced as evidence today was made by Rep. Paul J. McDonald, of Chelsea, counsel for the petition at the close of yesterday's session.

He also asked that Dr. Inez Clarke, sister of the late Dr. Genevieve Clarke, whose estate Judge Stone is alleged to have mismanaged, and Prof. W. Barton Leach, of the Harvard Law School, be summoned to appear as witnesses.

Boy, Beaten in School, to Sue

West Newbury, March 31.—Counsel has been retained by Mr. and Mrs. Ira Brown, of West Newbury, to press charges that their son, Freeman, 12, had been beaten with a wooden paddle by school officials for taking six marbles from a schoolmate.

The boy has been under doctor's care for a week, as the result of four spankings, which the parents allege were administered by the principal and physical director of the school. School officials refuse to comment on the charges.

Married Aide

An office romance culminated when Miss Ena Allard, formerly of Providence, R.I., became the wife of her employer, John Bargamian, radio engineer. He is former West Somerville resident. The ceremony was performed by Justice of the Peace William J. Canavan in Revere.

SENATE FACES POLICE FIGHT

Senator Joseph Finnegan, of Dorchester, will renew his fight today to grant Mayor Curley the power to name Boston's police commissioner. Finnegan said he would demand that Gov. Ely come to his support, declaring that Ely made as one of his campaign pledges the statement that he would support a plan to give the mayor of Boston the appointive power now held by the governor.

Finnegan also played Sen. Henry Parkman, Jr., because he favors a bill empowering Mayor Curley to set salaries of city employees, but yet opposes giving the mayor the right to control the department.

Finnegan's bill was defeated by a vote of 24 to 12 in the Senate yesterday.

Finnegan also played Sen. Henry Parkman, Jr., because he favors a bill empowering Mayor Curley to set salaries of city employees, but yet opposes giving the mayor the right to control the department.

Boston Man Looms as Choice for Aid to Labor Secretary

Washington, March 31 (AP).—Appointment within the next few days of Edward F. McGrady, of Boston, as Assistant Secretary of Labor, was predicted today by members of the New England delegation on Capitol Hill.

Coinciding with reports that three "little cabinet" berths—the assistant secretaries of War, Labor and Commerce—probably would be filled within the next week, McGrady's name loomed up as the most likely choice for chief side to Secretary Perkins in the Labor Department.

McGrady, a native of the Dorchester section of Boston, and a member of the legislative committee of the American Federation of Labor, would have the strong support of his labor organization and has many friends within the inner councils of the Democratic party.

A printing pressman, McGrady became a member of the Federation of Labor's legislative committee in 1928. He received national attention a few years ago as a field agent for the American Federation of Labor in its attempt to organize the mill workers of the South.

McGrady made his contribution to the last Democratic campaign as chief assistant to Daniel J. Tobin, chairman of the labor division of the Democratic national committee.

Ban Disabled Vets From New Benefits

Disabled veterans of the World War were excluded, despite the efforts of Rep. Lewis Sullivan, of East Boston, from inclusion in a bill which would qualify Medal of Honor holders, veterans of the Civil War, Spanish War or Philippine Insurrection from civil service positions without examination.

The bill was ordered to a third reading by a rising vote of 81 to 40.

Fear of Quarantine Starts Quincey Boys on Runaway Trip

Fear of being confined in a house under quarantine which they visit, was given by two Quincey boys as the reason for running away from home.

The boys, Albert Bettsky, 12, of Jackson st., and William Farrow, 13, of Copeland st., were safe at home today after plans were being made to search pools in Quincey quarries where the pair were reported to have been drowned. They had been gone since last Friday.

The boys said they hitchhiked to Manchester, N. H., to the home of Farrow's uncle, last Friday. They decided to return home when they were convinced that they would not be placed under quarantine.

Schoolboy Parade to Be Settled Today

The school committee and Superintendant Patrick T. Campbell will decide at a meeting today whether or not the annual schoolboy parade will be held this year. The parade costs the city about $3000, and this year, owing to the necessity for reducing expenses, the parade was to have been called off.

Daughters of Educators Set Class Pace at Wheaton

Norton, March 31 (AP)—Daughters of teachers and of others closely associated with academic work are achieving a scholastic standing far higher than the average for the student body at Wheaton College, an institution for girls.

Of the 460 students at Wheaton, 44 are the daughters of men and women in educational work, teachers, principals and superintendents of schools, college professors and deans. Of this group 30 stand scholastically in the upper halves of their classes, according to a

SOLONS CALLED ERRAND BOYS

Lowell Nationalist, Speaker of the House, and Erland F. Fish, president of the Senate, were termed "errand boys of State" by Frank Goodwin, chairman of the Finance Commission, in a radio address sponsored by the Equal Taxpayers' League.

Goodwin attacked the wealthy tax dodgers who evade their civic responsibilities while at the same time they advocate new taxes and wage cuts for the small home-owner.

Woman, 105, Invites Guests to Next Birthday Party

New Haven, Conn., March 31 (AP)—Mrs. Rebecca Pearson Hill, whose grandfather fought at Bunker Hill, observed her 105th birthday anniversary here, and she was happy—happy because many of her callers told her she doesn't look "over 80."

Her half sister, especially for the party arranged by friends and relatives. Mrs. Hill said "They tell me I don't look my age. Some say I don't look over 36. Of course, they want to make me happy. I am happy."

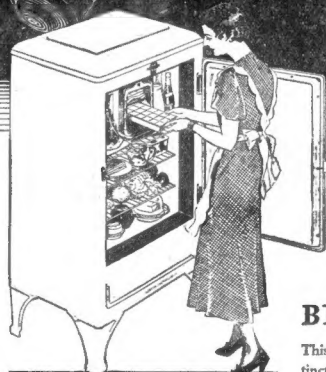

As her guests left she invited each of them to "come and see me at my next birthday."

Mrs. Hill, a native of Newburyport, Mass., wore a black satin gown, with lace collar and cuffs at the party. She resides with a granddaughter.

'OBSCENE POEM' QUITS EDITOR

Princeton, N. J., March 31 (AP)—Suspension of Philip S. Horton of Providence, R. I., by the Princeton Undergraduate Council for publishing an allegedly obscene poem in the Nassau Lit became known when the Daily Princetonian appeared with an editorial attacking the council's action.

Horton, who is chairman of Nassau Lit, undergraduate literary publication, is a junior. He was suspended following a secret meeting of the council, which announced briefly that the action was taken because of the poem, entitled "Remembrance," which Horton himself wrote and which appeared in Nassau Lit of March 15 date. The poem was called by the council "obscene and un-Princetonian."

Today the campus was seething with discussion of the suspension, which will be effective until April 15, and many students wrote to the undergraduate council condemning the action. Letters of protest appeared also in the Princetonian.

State Rights; State Fights

By ARTHUR BUGS BUCK

When speaking of beer, don't forget that Volstead was always right the morning after.

New York has tapped its first empty keg and heard a politician singing through the bang-holes.

It is a long cry from Manhattan to Albany, but Tammany is laughing all the way.

The malt comet is scheduled to flash across the skies next Friday. But in New York there will be no big dinner. It is a victory for the dregs, for it proves we will fight with it or without it.

The governor wants to serve it his way. The Legislature wants to serve it its way. The public doesn't care if they serve it this way or that way.

We have finally figured the entire situation out. It is not personal liberty. It is an attack on home brew.

ROOSEVELT DAY TOLD BY SON

World War veterans who suffered disability from causes outside the service or after their discharge will not be cut off from all support by the federal government under the economy bill plan to reduce government disability allowances.

In his second radio talk James Roosevelt, son of the President, said that the government has a moral duty to support such veterans until the proper state or municipal authorities had taken over his care.

Young Roosevelt gave an interesting talk on how the President spends his day. The President has breakfast at 7:45. At 8:30 he greets certain selected visitors, and his secretaries present him with an outline of the day's work. The President's day at his desk begins at 9:30 and lasts usually until 3:30.

Ham Hash Starts 'Yammering'

Food for thought for Boston's unemployed today is the report from State prison that the 999 inmates there engaged in a bit of "yammering" the other evening over the selection of food for their meal. Warden James L. WINTHROP SQUARE BOSTON MASS

THE DAY JEWELRY COMPANY 505 Washington Street Boston, Massachusetts.

Gentlemen:

The Universal Vacuum Cleaner which you are offering for $16.95 is certainly a wonderful value, and I am sure will interest thousands of New England housewives who right now are considering the purchase of a vacuum cleaner to take the back ache out of their spring cleaning.

The fact that this cleaner is fully guaranteed by such a famous manufacturer as Lendrum, Fryer & Clark answers any question as to its dependability, and the buyer's terms of 50¢ a week, with no interest charges, will place it within reach of any pocket.

I shall be glad to exhibit one here in our Boston Department.

Sincerely yours,

FRASER TALKS MARY SILENT ON GOLD STANDARD DOUG, JR.

New York, March 31 (AP)—Leon Fraser, native Bostonian, who is to appear in the play "The Gold Standard" at the New York Theatre, was silent on the subject of the gold standard.

He announced that the chief business of the day was to restore to the country the gold standard.

"We are convinced," he added, "the gold standard is the best international monetary standard and that the countries which are off are desirous of returning to it as soon as conditions permit."

Leon Fraser, who is to appear in the play "The Gold Standard" at the New York Theatre, was silent on the subject of the gold standard.

Extension of Port Privileges Urged

CANON N. S. March 31 (AP)—The eastern shore fishing board of trade in an appeal to the fishing extension for at least a year of the modus vivendi, under which United States craft may make ordinary purchases in Canadian Atlantic ports.

The Canadian government has agreed to the modus vivendi for a period ending May 31.

Jury Frees Suspect in Double Slaying

LIMA, O. March 31 (AP)—Loren Truesdale, 23, was found not guilty by a jury in a second trial on charges of first degree murder in the slaying of his brother, Earl, 20, and Miss Thelma Wood 17.

Al Smith Praises Roosevelt's Work Since Inauguration

New York, March 31—Former Governor Alfred E. Smith, writing in the April issue of the new Outlook, today declares the new administration led by the President, has made a good beginning.

"As we go to press, it has provided prompt and constructive leadership. It has guided public opinion by clear, understandable pronouncement, and has thus far restored morale and confidence. It has helped in a formidable way with the currency problem, with reorganization of the federal government, with the drastic reduction of veterans' benefits in the face of the bitter opposition of a strongly organized minority, with the problem of autarky and taxing beer and with the farm problem."

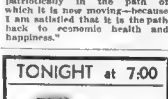

"It is wise for the new administration to take full advantage of the large majority in the new Congress, and of the popular approval at the very beginning of the special session, to do these things."

"A great many things can be done now which cannot be done later. Public opinion is aroused and will fully support the executive in these and similar measures of an emergency character."

"I said last month that the Barbara Holmes was to save you time and money. You can see how wrong I was. At 5:30 P. M. at R. H. White Co. in addition to the information about future home, she will also give you a card of introduction from the bureau to the bureau or company offering the rental."

Democracy Party was at the crossroads. I will say now that it has taken the right turn, and that everyone in the country, irrespective of party or other affiliations, should support the new administration loyally and patriotically in the path of which it is now moving—because I am satisfied that it is the path back to economic health and happiness."

Dishwasher hall games will not be as tedious to watch during the coming summer as there will be beer sold at the ball parks. Cincinnati, Cleveland, Detroit, Washington, Pittsburgh and Chicago.

Beer will be sold at the ballpark during the coming summer. The fans will be permitted to sip their beer between home stands.

St. Louis was one of the first league cities to have a bar under the grandstand. It was the request of the umpires that beer be sold in paper cups.

Owners of second class ball clubs will be able to advertise that while they serve beer all they will be able to do is their patrons.

Return of Variety to Stage of Orpheum Marks New Era for Favorites of Old

By NICHOLAS YOUNG

The return of the Orpheum today to the old system of vaudeville shows a new era in the history of the theatre. FLOCK OF STARS PICKED FOR "NIGHT FLIGHT" FILM

Clarence Brown Will Direct M-G-M's Aviation Yarn

By LOUELLA O. PARSONS
Metro Picture Editor Universal Service

Los Angeles, March 31.—Excitement aplenty on the Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer lot. George Bernard Shaw kept everyone talking yesterday and now comes a definite announcement that David O. Selznick takes his place as vice-president of the M-G-M company.

We just got over marveling at the cast for "Dinner at Eight" when along comes the announcement that the next "Night Flight" picture will equal it in the magnitude of its sparkling personnel.

Discovering a Star

"Gabriel Over the White House" converted me completely to young Franchot Tone. I had an idea he was just another good-looking youth, but his performance in "Gabriel Over the White House" convinces me that Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer has a come in this lad. His next big achievement will be the main lead in "Midnight Lady," an original story by John Emerson and Anita Loos. The blonde and lovely Loretta Young has been brought over from Warner Brothers to play the lead in this crook story which William Wellman directs. Wellman, too, was borrowed from Warner for the big moment. The Lucien Hubbard production.

Busy Day in Studios

Maya properly isn't around the corner for the studio, but today was the busiest day this columnist has had since the 30 per cent cut. The telephone was ringing constantly with places of news from this and that studio and this and that person. Karen Morley has moved in at the Radio Studio to emote opposite Richard Dix in an interesting bit of news. Miss Morley plays the part of an artist who paints beautiful blondes and brunettes in "The Art Man." April 1st will see this picture in full swing on the Radio lot.

but she will be paid now at the same old salary. The studio closes so soon, its doubtful if Miss Dwyer will make a picture until June unless she is loaned out.

Chatter in Hollywood: The nasty plot Maureen Dietrich received when she plumped her head from her horse had one disappointing effect. Although Maureen was not seriously hurt, the accident delays her return to Germany. She had planned to sail about the 16th of April. The report that Josef von Sternberg, who has returned from Germany, came here to direct Miss Dietrich, is denied by their friends. Josef, we hear, will go to Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer to direct either the Soviet picture or a Greta Garbo film.

Dresser on the Job

Marie Dressler's amazing return to health after weeks of suffering is cause for rejoicing on the Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer lot, also reason to take immediate action on a Dressler comedy-drama. Mervyn Le Roy, Warner Brothers' director who was about to produce "The Harbor" for M-G-M, has been taken off that picture and told to get busy on "Tugboat Annie."

Snaphots of Hollywood:

The LOU ROSSON-VICTOR FLEMING romance continues to

Interest Hollywood. LOU, the divorced wife of ARTHUR ROSSON, at the rights with VICTOR FLEMING and HOWARD HAWKS. MAE WEST is eyed in a sports car out at the right. NORMA TALAMON looking mighty fit, attracting attention as she walked into the Beverly Hills Derby with GILBERT ROLAND. PHILLIPS HOLMES entertained over the week-end by the GRANTLAND RICE, partner of the plucititudinous FLORENCE. Rumors that PHILLIPS and FLORENCE are seriously considering taking the big step, current. Postcards from AGNES CHRISTINE JOHNSON and FRANK DANCY who are in Panama, having a grand time. ADOLPHE MEN-JOU and his mother, lurching at SARDI. OWEN ANDREW and WILLIS GOLDBECK coming over their coffee at the Beverly Hills Hotel. The status of DOCTOR MALLOTT's supposed marriage interesting Hollywood. Was she or wasn't she married? That's all today. See you tomorrow.

Louella Parsons' Hollywood smart set is a regular feature of the Boston Sunday Adventure. Let me give you the "inside story."

The Birth of a NEW Nation!

Wait 'till you see it! You'll be AMAZED!
